A white ceramic mortar and pestle are the central focus, resting on a dark, textured wooden surface. The mortar contains several bright green, serrated leaves and a piece of dark, crumbly, and textured bark. A wooden pestle is positioned diagonally across the mortar. To the left of the mortar, there is a sprig of green leaves with serrated edges, a whole walnut, a dark, irregularly shaped piece of bark, and several dried, star-shaped spices (likely star anise) scattered on the wooden surface. The entire scene is framed by a thin orange border.[illegible]
